Prominent New Orleans Man Discusses Conditions at That Port.

HOW THEY GUARD AGAINST YELLOW FEVER EPIDEMIC

Well Pleased With Courteous Treatment of the Western People.

Mr. J. P. Henican of New Orleans, a diector in the Security Bank & Trading company of that city, with his wife and chil-dren are at the Knutsford, on a vacation Speaking on general matters touching Southern port he said:

The morning dispatch speaking of yellow fever being found at Ship Island is not to be wondered at. Ship Island is the regular quarintine or detention station, well outside and east of the mouth of the river, and a perfectly safe place in which to interne such

"You will understand that New Orleans has had a monopoly of the Central American fruit trade and that Pensacola and Mobile have been after it for some time. We have albeen after it for some time. We have al-ways had a five-day quarantine, especially against ports in the Baitic and Porto Cortes. Stobile, to get this trade, reduced her time to four-day stope, and as that saves one day's demurrage on ships, it has brought sev-eral into these ports that could not get into New Origans. We are 101 miles due north from the mouth of the river, and Ship Island is thirty miles from its mouth. The rail-ways do not have this quarantine and so many get to New Origans from these ports before a necessary time clapses.

Fever Is Imported.

Fever Is Imported.

"It is now well known that yellow fever is an imported peat; that it is not indegenous to New Orleans, and so the methods of treatment have been greatly changed. The medicalment have eliminated drugs altogether from the treatment, and rely wholly on cold applications, water, sunlight and air.

"The whole sanitary plans of New Orleans are being changed, at an estimated cost of $15,000,000, cutting out surface draininge, and open cesspools altogether. We are now using so simple a remedy that it seems foolish to many. It is series doors at its known that fifth has noising to do with breeding yellow fever geoms, and that the true origin is in the stogomyla fasciata, a female fly, and the female musquito.

the stegomyla fasciata, a female fly, and the female musquito.

Neither of these can pass through the meshes of the wire, and a room thus guarded, even in an infected house, is perfectly safe. But it must be understood that we take no chances on the flith, and are now completing the most perfect system of sanitary methods in the country. These deadly files are bred wholly in pools of stagmant water and come up from the small wiggletail. They cannot live in the sun. We have an active campaign against them with suiphur, all sorts of insect pewders, and since the epidemile of last July we have kept them down.

Cotton Is Still King.

Cotton Is Still King.

"Cotton? Yes, cotton is indeed our great king. Since 1550 we have sold our annual crops for 12 cents per pound, where, for the ten years preceding that time we got only 6 cents. It makes a difference of $400,000,000 annually. As a consequence the South is growing very rich.

"The war bitterness so much spoken of is a thing of the past in the South. The test there is true manhood and honear dealing, and the man who ties to these virtues is the man of the day in the South, no matter where he was born.

"We shall always hold our heroes in dear and loving remembrance; shall honer their lives and deeds, but we are citizens of a remnited country, and true manhood is the only requirement.

We are having a great ratiroad boom just how in New Orleans. The Frisco system has gained entrance and has just expended a million deliars for terminals and a union depot. The New York Central is coming in soon by purchising the Queen & Crescent route, and that will give us a direct north and south line. It will also boom things generally.

"We have $50,000 people in the city and real estate is very high. In a general way it is safe to say it has increased 100 per cent in ten years. We have thirty feet of water in the bur at Southwest Pass, and scores of ships load every month.

No Dread of Floods.

have a regular levee system, whereb any break may be immediately mended.

When the Panama canal opens for business we shall be the New York or San Francisco of the Guif States.

"Let me say that wife and I are deeply impressed with the kindly ways and courtesus treatment we find arroug Western people. It was altogether different in the East. In our own. Southland we cultivate courtesy in speech and number to strangers. I am proud to find the same virtue here."
